Francois Verlinden : Building Military Dioramas Vol. VI before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Building Military Dioramas Vol. VI:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great GalleryBy S. HebertThis small book has many great works by Verlinden. However, don't buy this book if you're looking for step-by-step instructions on how to build dioramas. But this book does give great ideas to get started on building your own. It was exactly what I was expecting, but the title can be a little deceiving, just call it Military Dioramas Vol. VI.

Soft Cover 48 Pages 90+ Full color photographs This 6th installment in VPs popular Building Military Dioramas series features 8 new articles covering the art of making military dioramas. Five breathtaking dioramas from the workshop at VP studios include Careless, with some unwearry GIs about to be ambushed by Germans, Huey Down and The Recovery featuring impressive scenes out of the Vietnam War, Into the Reich with a Sherman passing an ancient castle ruin, and Under Fire, an action-packed battle scene with a white-washed Tiger II. Greg Cihlar returns with Broken, a fabulous 1/16 scale diorama featuring a damaged StuG III, and VPs own Charlie Pritchett takes aim with Suez Stinger, featuring an impressive Egyptian SA-6 Gainful SAM system from the Yom Kippur War of 1973. Finally, Spanish master-modeler Miguel Jimenez unveils his new product line with Dry Refuelling?, featuring a beautiful German SdKfz 11 half-track with new resin wheels tarp cover. This latest book promises to whet the appetite of all modelers, as well as military enthusiasts historians around the world.
