It is definitely not a book for more advanced clay makers. The pictures are great and the crafts featured in the book are modeled by young people which gives credibility to the projects when you see them being worn by everyday people. I gave this book a rating of three only because it was not a book I especially enjoyed. However, for a beginner or young person this book will be great! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. love! By Gary's Girl I love this book. I am an art teacher and have an after school jewelry club. We do polymer clay projects often. This book has some really neat ideas and they are easy to make for the middle school students I teach. Only one problem. The book was listed as in NEW condition and it was cracked at the bottom of the spine. I am picky about the condition of my books and if I am told my book is in new condition, I expect it to be in new condition...you, too? 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Nice Book for Children's Projects By Bun Ho This is a book designed for CHILDREN - it is NOT designed for Adults who are making things which could be sold to other ADULTS. The designs here are very cute - but very very simplistic. This appears to be written for a 10 to 12 year old girl. For that audience it is an excellent book which would be much appreciated. This is not the sort of book you would buy if you wanted to make "big people's jewelry" for resale purposes. The instructions are easy to follow, and there are nice photos for every project.

Clay So Cute! shows how one of the easiest medium polymer clay, which need only be baked in the oven can be sculpted into quick, simple, totally fun jewelry and accessories for tween girls including bangles, pocket mirrors, earrings, chunky bead necklaces, and cute charms. Clay So Cute! teaches simple, step-by-step illustrated techniques to make 21 tween- and teen-friendly projects that are more sophisticated than "kid stuff," but trendier than the pieces found in adult clay books from robot key chains to polka-dot ponytail holders. Using only a few simple tools and updated colors, Sherri Haab has created a collection of eye-catching jewelry and accessories that crafty girls will love. Whether making them yourself or with mom or a friend, there's a project in here that you won't be able to resist and that all the girls in your class will want, too! Among the projects are: Cupcake Charms Japanese Fun Foods Bottle Cap Necklace Wishing Stone Jewelry
