The patterns do not fit over doll's head, vague pattern instructions make you end up winging itBy Adore YourselfIt seems that the clothing patterns do not fit. The doll pattern works well, but anything that needs to go over head, like a blouse or top, does not fit over the head!!! The patterns for clothing are if-y. The sun bonnet fit well and the skirt fit well, but the tops - anything going on the top, needs to somehow button or something as those neck holes do not work for the head...so it is disappointing re the clothing. Also, many of the patterns have vague instructions that make no sense so you end up winging it at times...sad cuz the doll is cool, but the patterns for clothing leave a lot to be desired.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.

Disappointed!By nancy from poughkeepsieI was very disappointed, the most important thing was the doll pattern,which should have been enclosed, well not enclosed!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Comes with Patterns.By Robin BoydHave not had time to use the book yet. but it looks helpful with patterns included.

With this excellent guide, anyone who can sew can create an exceptionally charming hand-crafted antique-style doll. Needlework authority Claire Bryant provides clear instructions and full-size patterns for making a sturdy, attractive cloth doll with a painted face and a closetful of clothes to dress her in: robe and nightgown, cape, suit, dresses, skirt and blouse, pinafore, wedding dress, and more. The actual number of costumes is even greater because you can mix and match outfits to create dozens of charming ensembles. While the doll itself is totally sewn, you paint the face on muslin to achieve an antique look.Over 30 how-to diagrams make each step easy, and you'll find various versions of the complete doll shown in black-and-white inside the book and in color on the covers. Also featured are instructions for making a little "dolly" for the doll with its own dress. Needleworkers, doll lovers, and admirers of hand-crafted items will find this doll a pleasure to make, give, or receive.
